OBITUARY. Floyd L. Main.

News was received Tunsday of the death from preumonia following in-fluence, at Camp Sheridan, Montgoni-ery, Ale, of Floyd L. Main of North Stonington.

He has wandered into an unknown land.

And left us dreaming how very fair it needs must be, since he lingers there.

And you—O you, who the wildest yearn
For the old-time step and the glad return—
Think of him faring on, as dear in the love of There as the love of Here;

And loyal still, as he gave the blows of his warrior-strength to his country's foes.

Mild and gentle, as he was brave.
When the sweetest love of his life he gave.

Think of him still as the same, I say: He is not dead—he is just away!

After the address the quartette wis the lord on them. How Sleep the Frave, which was followed by Taps, blown by Dangel of Banner was softly played by the organist, Miss Annie L. Tilk and the service, concluded with the shendelten by Dr. Howe and the probage. Solemncile "(Grey), on the organ.
